

Needham Education Foundation Donation Form

The NEF is an independent, community-based, not-for-profit organization that grants money to stimulate innovation and excellence in education for the enrichment of the public school children in Needham, MA. One hundred percent of our funding comes from private sources including individuals, corporations and foundations.

We thank you for your donation and for helping us make learning come alive!

Please consider joining our Leaders Circle with a donation of $500 or more. For this level of giving, you will be invited to special education-oriented Leaders Circle events with school leaders.
